

GERMAIN CADILLAC OF EASTON

OWNER EVENT

SEPTEMBER 17, 2009

Coyote Creek Chardonnay, 2008

layers of aromas from lively citrus notes to spicy characters of baked apple tart. On the palate, flavors of pear, pineapple and citrus with a slight minerality that is carried through from entry to finish. Great Value!

Perry Creek Muscat Cannelli, 2006

Ripe pink grapefruit and honeysuckle blossoms highlight the aromas. Candied citrus fruit with ripe spiced pears and honey. Bright acid, clean and lively with a smooth finish.

Wellington "Pique-Nique" Rose, 2007

Available for the first time in Ohio! The 2nd release of this Dry Rose has everyone excited! A blend of Zinfandel, Syrah and Grenache, and will pair perfectly with just about anything, especially with traditional holiday meals! Made with estate grown fruit from 20 unique acres of in Sonoma.

Coyote Creek Cabernet Sauvignon, 2007

Gold Medal Winner, San Francisco. Soft and supple in the mouth with aromas of cassis, dark plum and sweet berry.

Lot 205 Petit Sirah, 2006

This large-scale wine shows Petite Sirah's wonderful blackberry and plum jam aromas. These are coupled with notes of licorice, minerals and sweet oak. Its blackberry flavors are bolstered by a touch of spice cake.

Compass Merlot, 2007

Compass Merlot has flavors of black cherries, plums, and figs, with a soft, smooth finish. With its crisp acidity and ripe fruit flavors, this wine is an easy match with a wide range of main courses, including meats, pasta and vegetarian dishes.
